

KLAN NOW LINKED TO OIL FIELDS' TERROR REIGN

Officers Find Evidence That
L. A. Raid Was Part of K. K. Plan.

Idaho, Nevada, Arizona and California.

Correspondence showing that at least six ministers of the gospel have communicated with the klan officers.

Correspondence from private detectives, soliciting the business of the klan, and reports from such detectives on investigations made. Information received by the district attorney and the sheriff was said to be to the effect that every mail took large numbers of resignations from the klan to the office of Grand Goblin Coburn.

OIL FIELD ACTIVITY OF KLAN SHOWN.

BAKERSFIELD, April 28.—District Attorney Jesse R. Dorsey announced on his return from Los Angeles last night that he had obtained definite "connections" between west side gang activities and the Ku Klux Klan. He did not bring back any records or evidence with him, but said that all documents pertaining to the Kern county K. K. would be sent here soon.

He said he had obtained the name of every klanman and every officer in the Bakersfield klan, the Taft klan and the Tehachapi klan. Among other things disclosed by his investigation, Dorsey said, was the fact that the number of klanmen in Kern county was comparatively small. The estimate of 3000 members for this county, he said, was far too large.

The district attorney intimated that while many of the acts committed in the oil fields might not be traced to the klans themselves, acting officially, the evidence he had seen convinced him that members of the K. K. had important parts in the activities on the west side.

MUSCLE SHOALS ORIGINALLY WAS NAMED 'MUSSEL'

Maps of Original Survey and Historical Data Fix
Primary Name.

FLORENCE, Ala., April 28.—

From 1818 till about 1876 the shoals on the Tennessee river here were known as "Mussel Shoals," according to maps of original survey and historical data of original and authentic character possessed by John B. Weakley, Birmingham lawyer and capitalist and former resident of this community.

Weakley's parents and grandparents resided here and handed down to him a wealth of historical information, which he has displayed to set at rest a controversy that has arisen over the original spelling of "Muscle Shoals."

This data, according to Weakley, shows that the Cypress Land company purchased the land about Muscle Shoals from the government March 13, 1818, and the first white settlements were recorded that year, followed by an influx of settlers the next year.

At that time, the survey showed the shoals section of the river as "Mussel Shoals," the name being given the rapids by reason of the great quantities of the edible bivalve, mussels, found on and along the stream, these records appear to indicate.

"I have often heard my grandparents tell of mussels being hauled out by the weavers loads," declared Weakley. "This was the sum-musset that was once so abundant on the Mississippi river and from the shell of which in earlier days many 'pearl' buttons were made. Weakley accounts for the partial disappearance of the mussel from the stream as a result of floods and the encroachments of civilization.

CHANGED BY ACCIDENT.

When the government undertook to canalize the Muscle Shoals canal about 1876, the data in Weakley's possession shows, engineers changed the name from "Mussel" to "Muscle" on government records and it has so stood. This was not by design, but by accident, in Weakley's opinion.

Weakley possesses a map which he said was made 100 years ago. This shows the spelling "Musset." Several copies of this map are matters of record in the community, Weakley said.

Government records, insofar as they are available, show the spelling "Muscle Shoals."

Since Muscle Shoals became a national issue, discussion of the name has created numerous reports. It was contended by army engineers that the name never had been altered and that it originated from an Indian story, "heap big muscle," required to pull canoes over the rapids in the river at this point.

Another story that came from the Indians was that the shoals at that point in the river resembled the biceps, or muscles on the arm.

One Night's Dancing Equals 30-Mile Walk

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—Western, the famous long-distance "hiker," has nothing on the modern flapper, according to Dr. Karl Hein-stadt, noted Swiss physician, who is stopping here.

"The average fox-trotter covers a mile and a quarter every twenty minutes," Dr. Heinstadt says. "The waltz, being much slower, covers only half that. The young woman who dances from 10 p. m. to 5 a. m., with half an hour for midnight lunch, expends energy equivalent to that required for a walk of thirty miles."

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt, which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what becomes of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

CORSET TRADE IN BAD SHAPE; MAKERS ROUSED

CHICAGO, April 28.—It seems to be a question whether the girls wear 'em any more. The ways and means committee of the Chicago Corset club met today to outline a life saving program for the industry. "Only fifty-five per cent of the women are wearing corsets," according to Ross Hey, secretary of the organization, which includes manufacturers, salesmen and designers of the feminine form frames.

"More and more women are giving up the corset," said Mrs. Alva Ripley, president of the Fashion Are League of America. "Young girls? Why, to tell you the truth, I don't know a girl who wears a corset," she said.

One Man Slain in Texas Dry Raids

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 28.—One man was killed by prohibition officers, who continued "war" on moonshiners in Texas today. Frat Payton, 28, farmer, died from wounds he received when dry agents engaged three men in a gun battle during a raid on a place near here where it had been reported bootleggers were to have delivered sixty-three gallons of liquor.

Scores of shots were exchanged. No liquor was found and Payton was unharmed, it was said.

CULTIVATE CORN TO ESCAPE RHEUMATISM

By International News Service.
LONDON, April 28.—If you want to avoid rheumatism or gout, cultivate your corns. This advice to foot sufferers emanates from T. Gillingham, veteran chiropodist, of Fleet street, who has tended the feet of almost every judge, sheriff and Lord Mayor of London within the past fifty years.

"Corns, bunions and almost all other excrescences of the feet are simply nature's wonderful provision for extracting from the human body the chalk that sets up rheumatism and gout," he says.

GIANT FRAUDS ARE LAID TO MORSE, SONS AND OTHERS

Millions Said to Have Been Gained Through Their Swindling Operations.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Charles W. Morse, New York financier, his three sons and twenty others, some prominent in shipping, legal and brokerage circles, were accused in a federal indictment today of having used the mails to defraud investors in the stocks of various steamship companies.

The aggregate authorized capital of the sundry corporations ran into scores of millions of dollars and included the United States Steamship Company and its subsidiaries, United States Transport Company, Inc., and the holding organization known as the United States Shipping Corporation.

BUSINESS CHIEFS. The "principal defendants" charged with conspiracy since May, 1919, to defraud investors and put their alleged swindling scheme into effect by "use of advertising matter and sent through the mails, were named as follows:

Glenhard S. Foster, Orange, N. J., former head of G. S. Foster & Co., curb brokers.

Henry E. Doughton, Warren, Mass., former head of a concern dealing in investments and securities.

William H. Dennis, certified public accountant of New York.

Rupert M. Nunch, Augusta, Me., James Gill, publicly man for Morse and Milton Quinn, alias Milton I. Quimby, former Morse agent.

GIGANTIC FRAUDS. These men, the indictment alleged, have since May, 1919, conspired to defraud investors with a view to their own profit by divers schemes and artifices.

Charles W. Morse and his sons, Erwin A. of Washington, Benjamin W. of New York, and Harry F. of Greenwich, Conn.

Martin J. Gill, formerly assistant to the chairman of the United States Shipping Board.

William A. Barber, former attorney general of South Carolina.

Mark L. Gilbert, former president Ship Construction and Trading Company, Stonington, Conn.

George M. Durditt, attorney for Morse interests.

Nehemiah H. Campbell, Brooklyn, one time head of several Morse enterprises.

Richard O. White, New York, former president United States Transport Company.

Stuart G. Gibboney, lawyer.

Among these was alleged misrepresentation in advertising that the United States Steamship company, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000, and its underlying companies were going concerns with large contracts, both governmental and private, for building and repairing ships and carrying freight.

And that they were paying bona fide dividends and were backed by valuable assets, and that, therefore, to buy stock in these organizations would prove profitable to investors both in speculation and in dividends.

The contracts were not as represented, the grand jurors alleged, nor were the assets and the companies were not paying dividends.

The indictment charged that the defendants knew investors had been precluded from profiting by their own mismanagement.

PROMOTERS' SALARIES. The defendants were accused of having intended to pay themselves excessive salaries "to waste and dissipate" the resources of the United States Steamship company, appropriate its assets to themselves along with some of the capital stock, without making any valuable return, and to permit the corporation to incur excessive obligations.

Included in the indictment were copies of agreements alleged to have been entered into by Morse as the representative of Charles W. Morse and Company and James O'Brien, whereby James O'Brien and Company, brokers, were given an option to buy 300,000 shares of the stock of the United States Shipping Corporation, with a par value of $10, at from $2 to $8.50 a share.

A subsequent agreement provided for a joint venture in stock promotion.

A letter from Morse to O'Brien in 1920 concerned the delivery of 10,000 shares "which can be used for the purpose of protecting the market which you may create in this stock."

FLEET CORPORATION. There also were letters saying the companies had a $40,000,000 contract with the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and that if the shipping board had lived up to its contracts instead of having "done everything possible to wreck our subsidiaries," the concerns would be better shaped.

Barber and Gibboney in statements tonight declared themselves innocent of the charges against them. Both said they would ask for immediate trials.

Along with those previously listed, these were indicted today: James O'Brien, James R. Nelson, Arthur W. Kohler, Lawrence N. Bremer, Maurice M. O. Purdy, and Edward Lucas, all curb brokers and George E. Wells, attorney.

WATER SUPPLY IS ABOVE NORMAL

With the snow covering the Sierras reported about 50 per cent above normal, high water is predicted for this spring, especially in the San Joaquin valley. Light power, irrigation and water projects will have a plentiful supply, according to H. D. McGlashan, engineer for the water resources branch of the geological survey.

J. E. Church Jr., in charge of the snow surveys of California and Nevada, predicts that Lake Tahoe will reach its maximum height of water this season. He estimates it will rise 2.41 feet this year compared with a normal rise of 1.66 feet.

PHONOGRAPH IN YARD SUPPLIES RADIO CONCERT

OSHKOSH, Wis., April 28.—Members of the City Club gathered last evening at the Morgan farm, south of the city, to listen to a radio concert. Light electricity caused interference for a while but finally the strains of phonograph music were heard and an excellent concert program was enjoyed. After the meeting it was discovered that two kind-hearted members, rather than disappoint the assemblage, had carried a phonograph outdoors and placed it near a window. The concert made a hit.

Oldest Monastery Now U. S. Orphanage

TIFLIS, Armenia, April 28.—The oldest monastery in the world, the Bchmiadzin Castle, near Erivan, was reopened recently under the protection of the American flag, as an orphanage of the Near East Relief.

The ancient monastery is historically one of the most important in Armenia. It is the cradle of the Christian faith in Armenia having been founded by the much-venerated St. Gregory, who introduced Christianity into Armenia in the third century.

The monastery covers several acres of ground and is surrounded by a massive wall, which has sustained many a siege and has repelled frequent attacks by Kurds, Tartars, Persians and Saracens.

WITHDRAWAL OF U. S. FORCES IN HAITI DEMANDED

Charge Made That Invasion Is in Interest of Bankers' Combine.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Representations for the restoration of self-government to the Haitian people and the immediate withdrawal of American military forces from the island were before Secretary Hughes today from a committee of lawyers and representatives of the Foreign Policy Association of New York and the National Popular Government League of Washington.

A report submitted and signed by 24 lawyers charged that the seizure by the United States of the republic of Haiti was "a violation of our constitution, our treaties, and of international law. The report further charged that the action of the government in maintaining a "mandate" over Haiti constituted "usurpation of power through mere executive action unauthorized by law," and that the "honor and good name" of the United States required the immediate abrogation by the United States of the treaty of 1915, unconditionally and without qualification; the holding of elections of representatives to the legislative bodies of Haiti and of a president by the free will of the people at an early date; and the negotiation of a new treaty with a new Haitian administration.

The committee from the National Popular Government League included Senator Owen, Oklahoma, its president; Samuel Gompers, and Henry A. Slattery.

An address signed by members of the league from various sections of the country charged that the diplomatic and military forces of the United States were being used to permit the "economic, industrial and financial exploitation of Haiti and Santo Domingo by leading New York banking interests."

Among the signatories to the address were William Kent, former representative from California; Louis F. Post, former assistant secretary of labor; Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor; and William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists.

BAD CHECK MAN MAKES USE OF COOK'S UNIFORM

STOCKTON, April 25.—The police are today continuing their search for the smoothest check operator they have ever encountered—a man posing as a cook, who netted $750 in a few hours with seven bad checks offered at seven different business houses.

His method was ingenious. Hatless, eyes closed, wearing a cook's apron and looking as though he had just stepped out of a kitchen, the fellow would rush into a store and offer a check for $40, to all intents and purposes drawn in his favor by a popular restaurant. He would explain to the cashier that the check was for his week's wages

PROTESTANTS IN CORK ARE SLAIN; REPRISALS CAUSE

Belfast Hotel Is Wrecked by Bomb; Attempts at Truce Fail.

CORK, April 28.—Five prominent protestants were murdered at Ballinacorney and Clonakilty, in County Cork, last night. The murders were apparently in retaliation for the killing of Catholics in Belfast. All protestants have been ordered to leave Dumenway, County Cork, where three were shot dead Wednesday night.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, April 28.—The ground floor of the Hotel Barriery, in Belfast, was wrecked by a bomb today, according to a Central News despatch. There were, however, no casualties.

By GEORGE MACDONAGH.

United Press Staff Correspondent. DUBLIN, April 28.—Major General McKewen, commanding Free State troops at Mullingar, today had cleared the last rebel from the battle area where three were killed and a dozen wounded in fighting yesterday.

The general's ultimatum to the insurgent troops holding the county hall at Mullingar—"to get out or be blown out"—was answered promptly by rebel evacuation last night. Free State troops followed up their victory and swept the area clear, making a considerable haul of arms and ammunition.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DUBLIN, April 28.—Following two days of attempts at truce making between the free state and republican factions of southern Ireland here, Michael Collins, former head of the Irish republican army and now chief of the free state cabinet, today said that civil war is unavoidable, according to information given the International News Service by his colleagues today.

Capwell Employees Hold Jolly Evening

Elbel clubhouse was the scene of the annual jollification of the members of the employees association of the H. C. Capwell company last night when a varied program of entertainment was presented culminating with a dance.

"The Red Lamp," a two-act playlet, featuring Miss Una Harris, and participated in by members of the association, proved the outstanding feature of the evening and the work of the players met with unqualified success.

Another sketch was "Nim O'Clock in the Morning," written and directed by Miss Wava McCullough and presented by the Misses Ada Lyons, Louise Agrella and Betty Leith.

Music was provided by the Capwell Glee Club under the leadership of Miss Rebecca Rich. The organization contributed a number of selections and was rewarded with salves of applause.

Mrs. Hazel Lamerson was chairman of the entertaining committee and was assisted by Miss Rebecca Rich, Miss Wava McCullough, James Gifford and Walter Lewis. The ticket committee had for its chairman Miss Mary Kearney and C. E. Capwell headed the reception committee.

Sweden May Study Prohibition in U. S.

STOCKHOLM, April 28.—A Swedish commission may be sent to the United States to make a study of the effects of prohibition in that country and report to the Swedish people before the consultative plebiscite on prohibition to be held in Sweden next autumn. The proposal has been made by the central board of the Swedish Students' Association for Absolute Prohibition. This organization is composed of students in the higher schools and in universities. They suggest that the commission shall be composed of an equal number of "wets" and "drys," the "wets" to be appointed by the newly organized National League for Temperance. It is further pointed out that reports from the United States on the effect of the dry law are extremely contradictory and an investigation by a body composed of open-minded persons selected from both ranks should gain general confidence and be of great value to the Swedish public in deciding the wet and dry issue at the polls.

Dust Collector Cuts Cost of Shaving

INDIANA HARBOR, Ind., Apr. 29.—An improvement, to cost $309,000, at the Buffington plant of a Portland cement company is to result in a reduction of the price of shaves in Indiana Harbor. Day in and day out dust from the cement factory overhangs this city like a pall, and because of this condition local barbers several years ago raised their prices, saying cement dust got into the whiskers of their clientele, making the operation of shaving very difficult—not to mention wear and tear on razors. But the costly improvement at the plant is to do away with all that dust collectors are to be installed, and no more will the "concrete" take the joy from barbers' lives and the edge from their blades.

Women Plan to Erect Lincoln Bust in Park

By EDNA B. KINARD.

A memorial bust of Abraham Lincoln is designed for a city park by the Women and Girls of '61-'65. For a year and a half the patriotic organization has devoted its effort to accumulating funds for this purpose, having obtained from the board of park commissions permission to place the statue in a suitable spot. In the memorial fund is now $230. With a bit of extra work the women may easily accomplish their purpose to the extent of purchasing a cement compound bust of Lincoln mounted on a base of similar material.

With Memorial Day to be observed shortly, the suggestion has come that all the women's organizations of the city unite—not alone

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau of Information

"Can a person make an article for his own use exclusively (not for sale) when the article has been patented by someone else?"

Technically this would be an infringement on the patent. You could be subjected to a fine if the matter were taken up.

Clean Shelves

is the order of the day at this store. It may seem queer, but the bigger business you do the more likely you are to have a few choice morsels in most every style carried left on your shelves. Years ago they would have stayed on the shelves gathering dust until they became too old to do anyone any good.

Today prices are reduced—every shoe is sold while it is still in style

You get the benefit of improved merchandising methods, for without such a clean-up our money would gradually accumulate as stock on the shelves. Our ability to provide you with the best goods at the best possible price would be impaired.

Every Woman Wants —an Electric Washing Machine

WHY? Because the commercial laundry can rarely satisfy the exacting demands of a fastidious woman. And because over 750,000 Thor Electric Washing Machines now in use have proved that they can satisfy these demands and do the family washing quickly, economically, and well.

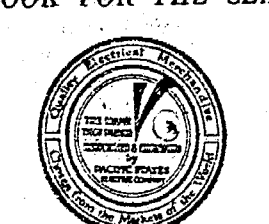

The Thor is just one item of a complete line of electric appliances and installation materials which the Pacific States Electric Company, with a world market to choose from, have selected, inspected, and certified with the "check" seal reproduced in this advertisement.

These standard electrical appliances and installation materials can be obtained through dealers and contractors, who are qualified as to their responsibility and technical competence. Hence the "check" seal helps to identify both standard, dependable electrical merchandise and the qualified, reliable service of responsible dealers and electrical contractors.

You will enjoy our new booklet "The Electrical How for Householders" which lists some of these standard materials and appliances and describes their use in the progress of a typical day in an electrified home. It may be obtained free from any contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

"California's Quaintest Summer Home"

Go This Summer to this unique seaside quietude

Drive There This Week

Seaside home offering you the recreation, comfort and rest you need, mid an environment of placid surroundings.

A modern community in every way—but built to comfortably house the discriminating recreation-seekers and lovers of the great outdoors, of those desiring quietude and rest to whom the exhilarating salt air alone brings new vigor and new life.

Situated 'neath surrounding highlands on the Northern shore of beautiful Monterey Bay, the picturesque little town of Capitola nestles cozily, offering unparalleled advantages as a vacation land—distinctly different, but far more charming, than most other "summer resorts."

Innumerable Attractions

Tennis, dancing, fresh and salt water bathing, forty-two kinds of fishing, bowling, moving pictures—are but a few of the many things to do. Unsurpassed boating, yachting and canoeing on the still waters of the beautiful Soquel River, or the ocean. Excellent hotel accommodations—or bungalows and tent houses—available through reservations by day, week or month.

Children Love It

Capitola is a playground that children love. Swept by gentle summer breezes and bathed in a bright warm sun, it is the ideal outdoor health- tonic that all children need.

While their parents delight in the fine surf-bathing beyond a great beach of white sand, the little tots frolic in a sheltered cove, but a few feet away.

Capitola will "renew" you. Its quaint charm will impress you. It will bring to you a realization that here, within a day's ride of your home, lies a haven of refreshing enchantment.

Capitola

"BY- THE-SEA
On the Bay of Monterey"

For the first time there are offered a limited number of select home-sites (and some with bungalows already built), available for those who will like Capitola well enough to vacation there every summer. Since Capitola has become so popular an all-year 'round attraction, many who now own summer homes there rent them for the balance of the year, finding this means of income an excellent investment. Thousands already familiar with Capitola will welcome this news. Many bungalows are now ready for inspection. By special arrangement with the Capitola Company representatives for these properties will personally show you over the ground if you desire it.

Some of the good things that drew crowds Wednesday
Folks, most of you know how we were jammed and crowded with people anxious to secure the Dollar Day Bargains here last Wednesday. In fact we've never had so many customers, even on the Big Dollar Day in 1920, and naturally, with every floor and counter crowded to the limit, many of the real good things were temporarily mislaid and lots of folks who wanted to buy were unable to get waited upon. Tomorrow, Saturday, we place them on sale at the same bargain prices and folks who secured some know what that means.

Whipping Post For Criminals Is Urged

By International News Service.
SAVANNAH, Ga., April 22.—Establishment of a whipping post for the punishment of criminal offenders was advocated here by Judge E. T. Surland of Warren, temporarily presiding in the Chatham County Superior Court.

The remarks of the judge came during the course of a lecture he was delivering to a negro woman, who had entered a plea of guilty. He said it is a great problem with the judges to determine what to do with some prisoners, especially women. He expressed his belief that 250 lashes with a buggy trace in installments of fifty would be beneficial to the prisoner and could be well applied in many other cases.

WOMAN'S PART IN POLITICS LAUDED BY PROFESSOR

Will Lead to End of War, Is Prediction of Berkeley Savant.

Lauding the part taken by women in religion and comparing the part taken by them in politics and politics, Prof. William S. Morgan of Berkeley, addressed the afternoon session of the northern California conference of the Unitarian church at Oakland yesterday.

"More women are needed in both our state and national government," declared Prof. Morgan. "They are needed in our legislative bodies," he continued, "because they can effect the problems of child labor and similar measures with which they are thoroughly familiar, such as problems of the home, which is the foundation of the nation."

Prof. Morgan contended that women as yet had made no appreciable headway in the field of politics, but that it would be the influence of women in politics which would tend to do away with wars.

Other speakers included Rev. Elmo A. Robinson of Palo Alto, who spoke on "The Problem of Youth in the Life of the Church"; Rev. Robert F. Levens of Berkeley, who spoke on "A Unitarian Church Mission"; and Chaplain Thomas L. Kelley of Mather Field, Sacramento, who spoke on "From Orthodoxy to Liberalism."

The conference closed last night with a platform meeting under the auspices of the Laymen's League chapters of Northern California, with Prof. W. H. Carruth of Palo Alto presiding and W. L. Richardson of Oakland in charge of the music.

"The Church in the Present Crisis" was the subject of the meeting and was discussed by Rev. Edward L. Parsons, bishop conductor of the Episcopal church in California, and Prof. George M. Stratton, professor of psychology, University of California.

Women are invading the field of highway construction throughout the United States.

CAPWELL SPEAKS BY WIRELESS TO LUNCHEON IN S. F.

Pacific Coast Merchants Hear Program Sent From the Rockridge Station.

H. C. Capwell, Oakland merchant, yesterday addressed the Manufacturers' and Wholesalers' Association of San Francisco at the Palace Hotel from the Rockridge radio station. His audience consisted of Pacific coast merchants and the Market Week luncheon. A program of vocal and instrumental music preceded his speech.

Capwell expressed his pleasure and gratification at the success of Market Week activities. It was the first time that an address meant for a special body of men has been broadcasted on the ether waves.

Washington Message Relayed to Hawaii

The name of Clifford J. Dow, known to thousands of radio fans because of the receiving records he has established at his station in Walluku, Maui, H. I., was connected yesterday with another record for amateur wireless telegraph transmission.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Radio Editor, TRIBUNE: Will you please tell me if it would be set right to hook up two crystal sets on the same antenna?

Radio Editor, TRIBUNE: Will you please tell me what stations KFC and KZM are?

Radio Editor, TRIBUNE: (1) Would you kindly let me know which of the following two sets is the best: No. 1—Composed of three honeycomb coils and variable condenser; No. 2—A so-called regenerative set composed of variocoupler and variometer? And for either set which variable condenser would you advise me to purchase—a 43 or 23 plate?

Fifteen Minutes of Radio Daily

By Edward M. Davis

LESSON No. 40.
REVIEW (Continued.)

THE VARIOMETER.
Briefly, the variometer consists of two coils of wire connected in series, one of the coils being stationary and the other so mounted that it may be rotated. If the current flows through the coils in the same direction the magnetic fields assist each other and the self-induction is at a maximum. If the inner coil is rotated so that the current flows through the coils in opposite directions, the magnetic fields oppose one another and the self-induction is at a minimum. The variometer, therefore, affords a continuous variation of inductance and close tuning within a comparatively small range of wave lengths.

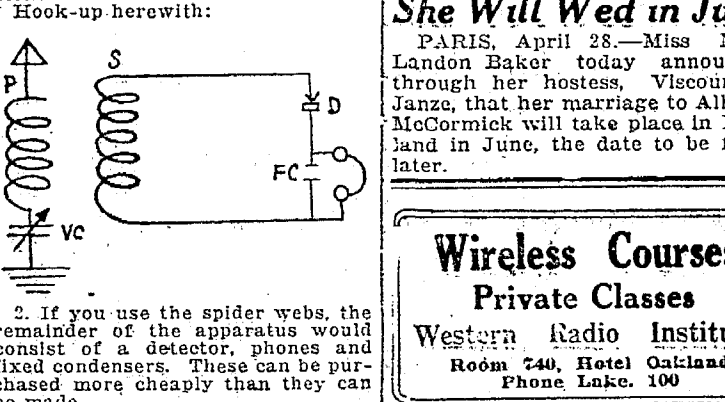

THE TWO-CIRCUIT RECEIVER.
In a simple form a receiver of this type consists of a primary winding and a secondary winding so constructed that it may be slipped in and out of the primary winding, thus securing various degrees of "tight" or "loose" coupling. Direction of turns, use of the primary winding may be regulated by an adjustable slider, while the secondary winding may have taps brought out to a multi-point switch. This adjustable receiving transformer in conjunction with a variable condenser, detector and receiving telephones forms a two-circuit receiving which gives very satisfactory results in the receipt of radio signals.

CRYSTAL DETECTOR.
If the series of damped radio-frequency oscillations are impressed upon a crystal detector, the rectifying properties of the crystal allow only the positive or negative currents to pass through, with the result that half of each cycle is wiped out and the incoming oscillations are rectified into a series of unidirectional pulses. The average effect of each group of rectified oscillations impulses the diaphragm of the receiving telephones and results in the reception of the radio signal.

THE THERMIONIC TUBE BULB.
The thermionic tube consists of a small glass bulb from which the air has been exhausted. Supported in the vacuum are the filament, grid and plate. When the filament is properly heated and the plate is connected to a source of positive potential, the electrons are drawn from the filament to the plate.

Also want to know if a three-quarter inch galvanized iron pipe can be used on one end of an aerial, single wire, as an upright.

Is it possible to use either of the above sets connected to a light socket? Perhaps there will soon be an attachment to make this possible. I could wait for this if you said so, as I wish to eliminate the storage battery expense if it can be done.

Has The TRIBUNE discontinued the publication of its radio query department?

Radio Editor, TRIBUNE: (1) I am a member of your radio club and would like you to send me directions how to build a pair of spider webs of about 25 turns each; also a diagram showing how to connect these up with a variable condenser on a crystal set. One coil is hinged and used as the secondary.

Also tell me what is the best crystal set that I can make, and tell me how to make it and hook it up.

Thomas C. Eaglesome New President of Rotary Club

Thomas C. Eaglesome, general manager of the California Cap company, chairman of the citizens' emergency employment and relief committee is the new president of the Oakland Rotary club.

Eaglesome was elevated from the vice-presidency at the annual meeting of the organization in the Hotel Oakland last night by a popular vote, defeating Harry S. Anderson, the only other candidate. The election was made unanimous on a motion by Anderson.

The members elected Joseph J. Rosborough, Rodney Kenner, Larry Lund and George Harris as directors for the ensuing year; selected Rosborough as vice president and named Eaglesome, Rosborough, Max Horvinski and Carson Schmidt, the retiring president, delegates to the international convention at Los Angeles.

Schmidt was presented with a chimes clock by the Rotarians as a mark of their esteem for his work during the year. The presentation speech was made by Max Horvinski, a past president.

CUPS FOR BOY SCOUTS.
The club, through Leigh Rodgers, also presented Homer Benis as chief executive of the Boy Scouts, with two silver loving cups, which will be offered as prizes to the Boy Scouts.

A farewell address to Major William McCaughey of the United States army and the head of the R. O. T. C. here, was delivered by his successor, Major Frank Hunter, who told of Major McCaughey's career.

Major McCaughey has been selected as one of the fifty-one officers to attend the staff school at Fort Leavenworth on June 1 to prepare himself for duty as officer of the general staff.

Two new members were introduced in the persons of Rabbi Rudolph Coffey of the Temple Sinai and Rev. Charles Luther Klason, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church.

Followed a talk on the principles of Rotary by Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of city schools.

REPORTS ON ACTIVITIES.
President Schmidt told of the increase in attendance during his regime and the various charities indulged in by the organization, almost $3000 having been expended during the year for charitable purposes. Reports were made also by Treasurer Fred M. Morcom, Howard Swift of the entertainment committee, Gus Gerhardt of the publicity committee, Frank Reed of the sick committee, and Joseph J. Rosborough of the boys' work department.

The address of the evening was Pistol.

SAN LEANDRO, April 28.—While officials are further investigating the slaying, Gelo Corti, 14 years old, is being held at the juvenile detention home in Oakland today as the result of an accidental shooting late yesterday which ended the life of Manuel Silva, 16 years old.

Questioned by Marshal Peralta after the shooting, young Corti admitted that he had accidentally shot his chum with a revolver, while they were playing near the Silva home at 1210 Clark street. At first he told the marshal that the boy had shot himself, but later admitted that the gun "went off" while he

'Grant' to Be Theme
At Sinai Temple

At Temple Sinai this evening the regular Sabbath service will be held, beginning at 8 o'clock. Rabbi Rudolph L. Coffey will deliver a sermon on "Ulysses S. Grant, Our General-President," in honor of the centenary of our eighteenth president.

The services both tonight and tomorrow as well will be of an unusual character because it marks the tenth anniversary of the death of Mrs. Pauline Abrahamson, who was one of the pioneer residents of Oakland.

The boys had found four cartridges and after trying to explode the shells in a bonfire and by throwing them against a stone wall, young Corti went to his home and got his father's pistol.

He loaded the weapon and twice pulled the trigger, but the pistol did not fire.

"Aw, your gun is no good," jeered the Silva boy, according to young Corti.

"I'll show you it's all right," Corti told the marshal he replied, and pointing the pistol at his playmate, he pulled the trigger.

There was a report and Silva fell to the ground, mortally wounded.

DANCE CONCERT TO BE GIVEN AT GREEK THEATER

Pretty Girls Will Be Feature of Event Saturday Night at Greek Theater.

BERKELEY, April 28.—Twenty of the prettiest and most gifted girls in college and social circles will make their debut as professional dancers on Saturday night, when they appear in the Greek theater in a "dance concert" arranged by Joseph Fredericks, young Berkeleyan who recently won signal honor from Anna Pavlova, celebrated Russian danseuse.

The concert will be the last given by Fredericks before he leaves this summer to become solo dancer in Pavlova's company. Two original ballets conceived by Fredericks have been accepted by Pavlova for presentation during her next season with the talented Berkeley youth announced to appear as solo dancer.

Saturday night's program will be opened by Fredericks with the first presentation in this country of "At the Hawk's Well," a dance play founded on William Butler Yeats' well known work. Other numbers to be given with unusual color and lighting effects are "The Dance of Little Russia" and "The Agate Worn."

Among the score of fair dancers to be seen are Miss Anita Ayila, star of campus productions, and the Misses Dexter Harding, Frances Hatch, Virginia Byrne, Margaret Willey and Marie Adels.

Horses Grin as One Nips Auto Man's Tonneau

From the vegetable gardens of Alameda to the classic elms of Emeryville, if you care to take notice, there is a grin on the face of every horse and occasionally, as the news spreads from one equine to another, there is to be heard that rarest of sounds, a horse laugh. The horses, even in their dwindling numbers, at last have the joke on the automobile.

Last night D. H. Hersh, aged 27, a garage man of 1144 Eddy street, San Francisco, passing down Washington street, stopped, looked at a small object in the gutter, and stooped to pick it up. He did not deign to notice a horse standing at the curb—that

BARROWS' RULING STOPS GLEE CLUB MORNING FETE

College Songsters Forced to Postpone Their Sunday Program.

BERKELEY, April 28.—Members of the University of California Glee club have been forced to change plans for a sacred concert to be given Sunday at a San Francisco theater.

A rule of long standing on the university campus provides that all college activities and functions be suspended on Sunday mornings and also stipulates that no college organization make an appearance for remuneration during the hours devoted to church services on the Sabbath.

Accordingly, plans of the college Glee club to present a sacred program in San Francisco at 10 o'clock Sunday morning were forced to undergo a change yesterday as a result of a conference between President Barrows and C. R. (Brick) Morse, director of the Glee club.

Morse sought to impress upon the college head the religious nature of the concert, but Dr. Barrows insisted that the Sunday ruling be observed. The concert was necessarily postponed from the appointed hour until 12:30 o'clock, or until after Sunday morning devotionals had been concluded in bay city churches.

NEW U. C. PAPER 'GUSSES' FRATS

BERKELEY, April 28.—"Gusses" words are liberally sprinkled through the pages of a mimeographed publication entitled "The Barb," which made its appearance on the university campus today, the second anonymous paper to be circulated in college circles within a month.

Announced as the organ of non-organization students, the new publication attacks fraternities and campus "political" leaders. An article entitled "A Napoleonic Politics," has been stricken from the publication with the liberal use of black ink.

"It is folly to say that we have democracy on the university campus when a non-organization student has no chance to do anything but work," says the paper, which serves notice that men and women students not affiliated with fraternities and sororities are being mobilized for "battle."

Non-affiliated students are urged as one means of placing all students on an equal footing, while a division of activities among students is advocated as another campus need.

"We will come out every now and then to show the general student how low enough on the campus gets bored," is the parting fling of the editors University officials took no official cognizance of the new publication. Earlier in the month "Laughing Horse," another anonymous publication, made its appearance on the campus, attacking faculty members and students alike.

WOMEN URGED TO REGISTER AND VOTE

SAN RAFAEL, April 28.—Women were urged to register and vote at the November elections at the opening sessions of the annual convention of San Francisco, California Federation of Women's Clubs, meeting in the Elks Clubrooms yesterday. Mrs. M. H. Tenney of Watsonville, district president.

Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald, state president, asked the clubwomen to attend the movies and report their approval of good films to the box office.

Harry D. Gray, professor of English at Stanford, discussed "Better Films." He advised a postcard campaign on the part of the women to advertise desirable films. The convention by acclamation adopted a resolution to visit producers in the interests of good films.

"Mrs. Wiggs" to Be Seen Tomorrow

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will make three appearances at the Municipal Opera House tomorrow under the auspices of the Mills College Alumnae association. Marguerite Clark is featured in the film as Lovey Mary. Along with the screen play will be presented "The Wizard of Oz."

The Mills college women have embarked in the movie business in order that the endowment fund may be substantially increased. Mrs. Don Smith and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell Potter have taken over the business end for tomorrow's benefit. The shows will commence at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Ready-made theater parties of acquainted women who want to become acquainted with Mrs. Wiggs will be provided to patrons who desire to make them happy. A telephone call to Elmhurst 10 or Fruitvale 3736 W. will secure the assorted groups.

Montana Society to Be Formed Tomorrow

At a meeting called for tomorrow night in the Claremont Hotel, the Montana Society of California will be organized by former residents of that state now residing here. More than 225 names have been enrolled in the temporary organization formed a few weeks ago. Dr. J. Loran Pease is a leader in the new state society. A similar organization has been formed in southern California.

UNFASHIONABLE PARADE STAGED BY HIGH SCHOOL

The Oakland high school student body took its natty appearance today. The student body celebrated "Old Clothes Day" by dressing that way, and the swagger tags of the average high school youths were lacking.

Every student was pledged to appear in costumes of bygone days. At noon a parade of these unfashionables marched to the city hall where a rally was held. Another parade took the performers back to the athletic field, where a giant rally was held for the track meet, to be staged Saturday at the University of California field.

Members of the faculty comprised the audience at the school and remarked on the different appearance of their charges.

The parade and rally were held under direction of Jack Beal, yell leader, assisted by Ray Shannon and Stewart Bennett. It was admitted that the efforts of the yell leaders were a "screen."

FINAL MEETING IN STANFORD DRIVE

At a meeting scheduled for this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Blue room of the Hotel Oakland, the Alameda county committee, which has been working for the local quota of the million for Stanford, will have its final workers' session, according to announcement sent out by Chairman Herman Rittigstein.

With the return to headquarters of all of the lists which have been handled by the Stanford alumni workers the campaign, so far as the Eastbay is concerned, will be closed. It is the hope of the local captains that all of those cards may be reported upon at tonight's gathering.

About $15,000 of the desired amount had been subscribed and reported at the mid-week meeting of the committee heads.

MURPHY WINNER IN RAISIN DAY RACING CLASSIC

Also Captures First Place in National Championship;
Joe Thomas III.

FRESNO, April 28.—Jimmy Murphy distinguished himself here yesterday when he won the 150-mile Raisin Day classic and captured first place in the national championship. His average speed was 102.85 miles per hour, completing the race in 1 hour, 27 minutes and 30.37 seconds.

Frank Elliott finished second and Harry Hartz, winner of the last motor derby at San Carlos, was third. Art Klein was fourth, Pietro Borbino fifth, Jerry Wonderlich sixth, Peter de Paolo seventh and Joe Thomas eighth.

Eddie Hearne and Roscoe Saries were forced out of the race with spark plug trouble. Ralph de Palma failed to start after his motor was damaged in the try-outs.

Murphy, who drove without a stop, came to Fresno to win the race. At the last race held here he was beaten by less than three feet when Earl Cooper, driving Joe Thomas' car, staged a come-back in the racing game.

The race was furnished by Peter de Paolo when he blew a tire in the ninety-fifth lap, shot up a curve of the track, turned twice, skidded to the apron and straightened out with further damage than a blown out tire and a punctured gas tank.

The place at which de Paolo skidded was at the same spot Alton Soules skidded through a fence at the last race here, causing injuries from which he died.

There was an estimated crowd of 45,000 persons at the race.

Three physicians held a second consultation here late last night considering the advisability of operating on Joe Thomas, race driver, who competed in the Raisin Day classic here. Symptoms of appendicitis developed following the race, it was stated.

This is the second time that Joe Thomas has occasion to go to the hospital either before or after a race when he was driving in Fresno. Last fall when he came to Fresno to compete in the Fresno district fair race, blood poisoning developed in one arm and the driver was taken to the hospital and permission denied him to drive in the race. His racer, piloted by Earl Cooper, was the first over the line, nosing out Jimmy Murphy in a sensational finish.

Coronation of Queen Will Be Feature Of Shrine Mardi Gras Festivities Tonight

MISS ENID MEREDITH, one of the dancers at the Shriners' Mardi Gras, which offers among its many features a new vaudeville program tonight.

New Vaudeville Is Promised As Southern Fete Is to Be Duplicated

Orphans, inmates of charitable institutions of all sorts and disabled soldiers are cordially invited to be the guests of THE TRIBUNE at a special matinee performance to be held at the Shrine Mardi Gras tomorrow afternoon. A feature of the matinee will be a parade of decorated baby vehicles starting at 2 o'clock in front of the auditorium. Prizes will be awarded upon the originality displayed in the decorative scheme.

Bulger's animal circus will put on a special program as well as Natalie Carosso and her famous dancers. Special admission tickets to THE TRIBUNE'S guests may be obtained by applying at the headquarters of the Shrine committee in Aames Temple, at Thirtieth and Harrison streets.

Making good their promise to offer a program of entirely different features in connection with their Mardi Gras and circus, the Oakland Shriners have arranged a special southern Mardi Gras festival for this evening. Stress is laid upon the fact that the festival will be identical with that which is held every year in New Orleans and other southern cities. W. F. Hamilton, who has produced Mardi Gras spectacles for the southern cities, will have personal direction of the event.

The festival will be woven around the coronation of Miss Lulise Burns, who was elected queen yesterday. The festivities will start with a Mardi Gras parade. At 8 o'clock there will be a coronation and pageant. A reception will be tendered to the queen at 10 o'clock and at 11 o'clock the Grand March will be led by the queen. Dancing until 1 o'clock will follow.

VAUDEVILLE CHARGE.
In conjunction with the Mardi Gras spectacle there will be an entire change in vaudeville numbers on the stage. A solid organization from Fort McDowell, headed by Private Kridler, made such an impression yesterday that it has been added to the bill for this evening. The solid act ranges from jazz numbers to acrobatics and includes "Jazz" Chambers, John Souza, Lockhard H. Barnett, Herbert Gray, Albert Behan, Leo Libby, Robert Baer, Daniel Rose, R. Gordon and H. L. Sprague.

In addition to the soldier act, there will be a new program of dance numbers by Rose Waterman and Carosso and his famous dancers. The vaudeville act will offer new stunts, while the Corollis, European novelty artists, will present for the first time an entirely new novelty act. Jess Bo, the king of comedy mules, and his vaudeville act will continue on the bill.

Director Hamilton makes a particular appeal that everyone who can shall attend in costume this evening. An inducement for the parade is that anyone who does, those in costume may participate in the Grand March, which will be led by the queen.

ANOTHER FEAT HAS BEEN SECURED for Saturday night. The Shriners will send down a special act from its "Days of '49" circus to be held next month. A special train carrying 500 Sacramento residents will arrive at 5:40 o'clock. A 49 dinner will be given at Hotel Oakland followed by a street parade. At the auditorium, the 49ers will give a typical 49 act. They promise a "49 saloon," 49 dancing girls, a "necktie party" and 49 acts in all. Among these in the Sacramento party will be Clyde Seavey, known as "Chief Whiskerino"; H. E. Diggles, "Chief Long Whiskers"; Jack Reid and other leading citizens. Over 200 girls are promised to originate the parade.

An actual check of the visitors indicate that the Mardi Gras has been the greatest success of its kind in the history of Oakland. Starting with a record-breaking crowd on Monday evening, the attendance has steadily climbed until it is estimated that 60,000 people have seen the show.

HAMILTON PRAISED.
W. F. Hamilton, the director, is given credit for his achievement by the members of the Shrine.

"I think that the public should know of the work done by illustrious Potentate Thomas W. Norris, Lawrence E. Lund, chairman of the entertainment committee; W. F. Brown, vice-chairman; Captain E. J. Parish, Clarence E. Head, stage manager," he said. "By importance of the positions which they held on the organization committee they were called upon to give their time both day and night. They made many individual sacrifices in order to put this show across and I feel that the public should know this."

A special children's matinee will be given tomorrow. Starting at 2 o'clock there will be a parade of baby vehicles from the front of the auditorium. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated vehicles. Children from the orphan asylum and wounded soldiers will be the special guests of the Shriners upon this occasion.

TRACY WOMEN MEET.
TRACY, April 28.—The meeting of the Tracy Women's club this afternoon in the Masonic hall will be in charge of the literary section. There will be two interesting book reviews and Mrs. W. A. Littlefield, county chairman on the better film week, will tell of the committee's plans. The delegates to the district convention held last week will report. They were Mrs. B. S. Crittenden and Mrs. W. E. Kilpatrick.

KILLER CARRIES GUN TO COURT TO SHOOT WAY OUT

Revolver, Concealed on His Waistband, Is Discovered
After Man Boasts.

Three times Joaquin Ramos, confessed murderer of Mrs. Amanda Plankuchen, went into court carrying a heavy caliber revolver suspended from the waistband of his trousers, determined to shoot his way to freedom if he should be convicted of murder in the first degree. Each time he left the court jail he was searched by deputy sheriffs and each time smuggled his weapon past them. His possession of the revolver was revealed by M. A. Thomas, former United States district attorney at Honolulu, attorney for Ramos.

Ramos, persuaded by his attorney to plead guilty to a charge of second degree murder, boasted to Thomas that he was prepared to shoot his way out if he had been convicted for first degree murder and sentenced to hang. Thomas, immediately on leaving the jail, notified Deputy District Attorney Earl Warren.

Warren, without losing a moment, hurried to the jail and notified Sheriff Frank Barnett. Ramos was brought from his cell and stripped to the skin. The gun was found.

Ramos told the authorities that he got the gun from another prisoner, who has since been released. They were playing cards one day and the prisoner, whose name he refused to divulge, told him there was a present for him in his bunk. Ramos made a search and found the gun and cartridges.

Ramos was placed in solitary confinement. All visitors were denied him and Sheriff Barnett ordered a rigid search of the jail from top to bottom. This is the third time within a year that prisoners in the county jail have been found to possess deadly weapons.

New Power Line Soon to Be Ready

LODI, April 28.—Only a few connections at the Stockton end remain to be made before the new 60,000-volt power line is ready to supply electric energy. It was constructed from Stockton, 14 miles distant, through the cooperation of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Western States Gas and Electric Company and represents an investment of almost $30,000.

S. J. COLLEGE WINS

SAN JOSE, April 28.—William Owens and Lawton Harris of the College of Pacific won the decision over Howard G. Freese and T. Carroll Wilson of the University of Nevada in a debate here tonight on the question, "Resolved, that the several states should exact legislation embodying the Kansas contract of industrial relations." The local debaters upheld the negative of this proposition.

MAN SUES WIFE BY PROXY; CAN'T RETURN, HE SAYS

Exile on Account of a False
Criminal Charge, He Writes
From Canada.

Herman Edwin Mootz, former Oakland business man and clubman, asserted in an affidavit presented to Superior Judge James C. Quinn today that false criminal charges made against him by his wife had made him an exile from California. Therefore, he added, he is unable at present to appear as plaintiff against her in a suit to recover $150,000 of property out of which he declared she has defrauded him. In order to allow Mootz time in which to arrange with the California parole board to permit his return here from Canada, Judge Quinn continued trial of the suit until June 5.

Mootz declared that after marrying Maude R. Mootz in 1903 he was so "crazy in love" with her that he turned over to her his entire property, consisting of $100,000 in real estate and $50,000 in cash, securities and jewelry. One day in 1913, he asserted, he discovered strychnine in a glass of orange juice she had given him. When he taxed her with this, he asserts, she had him arrested on a charge of assault and battery. Later, he alleged, with the aid of her sister, Minnie Kincaid, of Modesto, she had him tried and convicted on a charge of carrying a revolver with the intent to do bodily harm, for which he was sentenced to three years in San Quentin, but was later placed on parole on condition that he would stay outside of California. Mootz is now in London, Ontario, Canada.

SOLICITOR HELD FOR THEFT

BERKELEY, April 28.—Leland Brown, a youthful magazine solicitor, was held for trial on a charge of robbing the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Noteware, 3124 Eton street, yesterday by Judge Robert Edgar. Brown confessed to entering the Noteware home with Thomas Aston, now being held for trial in San Francisco.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1922.

THE GOVERNMENT'S FINANCES.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has written to Chairman McCumber of the Senate Finance Committee outlining briefly the financial condition and prospects of the government. He submits estimates that there will be a surplus of about $17,000,000 at the end of the current fiscal year, June 30 next, but a deficit of $339,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923.

The estimates for 1922 are rather better than
was expected and as forecast in the budget submitted in December. At that time it was believed there would be a deficit of some $50-000,000 instead of the surplus which Mr. Mellon now mentions. But the forecast of a deficit of $339,000,000 for 1923 will surprise
those who had not taken into account the fact that internal revenue income might not be maintained at the rate prevailing in 1921.

Secretary Mellon's estimates for 1923 takes the budget estimate of December as a basis
and then takes account of an indicated shrinkage in internal revenue collections of about $215,000,000; an estimated falling off of about $25,000,000 in Federal Reserve Bank franchise
tax receipts; estimated additional miscellaneous revenue of about $200,000,000, on account of payment of interest by the British government; estimated collections by the War
Finance Corporation of about $100,000,000;
and estimated additional expenditures on account of the railroads to the amount of about $200,000,000.

The Budget for 1923, as submitted to Congress, did not include any item of expenditure on account of railroads, but the indications now are, says Mr. Mellon, that, owing to delayed settlements of matters arising out of Federal control and under the guaranty for the six months following Federal control, there will be payments of about $100,000,000 under the Railroad Administration and about $100-000,000 under the Interstate Commerce Commission during the fiscal year 1923.

As to the expenditures of 1923, the Treasury Department is able only to make approximations. Many of the important appropriations bills have not yet been finally passed, but
as to the ordinary expenditures it is not expected that in the aggregate the expenditures ordered by Congress will be materially in excess of the estimates of the budget bureau.
There are new schemes of legislation pending,
however, such as the bonus bill and large irrigation and reclamation projects and these may add largely to the expenditures.

Secretary Mellon reminds Congress that no official arrangement has yet been reached for the collection of $100,000,000 from the British government as interest on loans, but official announcement of the intention of the British government to include such an item in its 1923
budget and the high probability that refunding
loan agreements will be shortly concluded justify reliance upon this item of income. The head of the Treasury Department omits to take cognizance, and he does not mention this in his letter to Senator McCumber, of one highly probable additional source of income for 1923.
This is the new tariff law. It gives customs receipts as $339,000,000, the prevailing rate of collection under the Underwood schedule.

The new tariff law will make large increases
in duties all along the line and it is estimated that it will yield at least twice as much revenue
as the Underwood law and probably three times as much. Should the tariff law be finally enacted and become effective by January 1 next,
the government would get the benefit of six months higher customs duties during the fiscal year of 1923. This would help materially to meet the prospective deficit.

Mr. William J. Bryan has fulfilled his promise to pay $100 to any college professor who could give convincing answers to certain questions concerning the theory of evolution. Evidently Mr. Bryan never heard of the old-fashioned shell game. Otherwise he would not have lost his $100. He would have known that nearly all philosophers have a convincing answer to nearly all questions of theory.

A SOLDIER FOR PEACE.

General Grant, former President, the anniversary of whose birth was observed yesterday
in many places throughout the country, is probably the victim of more incorrect appreciation on the part of the people than any other distinguished American statesman. This is because his most conspicuous public service,
that which led to his election to the Presidency, was as a military chief.

As commander of the armies in the field,
General Grant closed the Civil War with a series of victories, the crowning one of which was the capitulation of General Lee at Appomattox. His military record, with the innumerable recital that he did not give much promise
as a youth, being a failure at many things and fond of indulgence in hard drink, has been most of the space allotted to General Grant
in the school histories.

But at some future time the historians may dwell upon the work of General Grant as President and his healing efforts in the period of natural reconstruction. Perhaps they will find time to mention the acts performed and the policies laid down in the Grant administration which have had highly important effects
upon the subsequent development of the country.

General Grant was essentially a man of peace, who regretted as much as any one else
to have his peaceful inclinations disturbed by necessary conflict. His contribution to peace and the healing of the wounds of war is as noteworthy as his prowess in war—as the mayor of Liverpool said to him upon the occasion of his visit to England in 1879, "You have stamped your name on the history of the world by your brilliant career as a soldier, and still more as a statesman, in the interest of peace."

The more one pursues reading that takes him into close quarters with General Grant after the Civil war the greater becomes one's admiration for the President of conciliation. There is the incident of his counsel to the younger members of his touring party, who were whil-ing away the hours coasting down the Nile in Egypt by shooting at stray cranes and pelicans—that they would do better to go ashore
and fire at the poor, patient, drudging camels,
who knew not the joys of an unordered course.
And upon his arrival in San Francisco on September 20, 1879, from a world tour that had been a veritable triumph, he declared, "There is no place like home."

Again, his unfortunate venture in a financial business in the hope of providing for his family which left him bankrupt; his immediate decision to write his memoirs that he might leave his widow and children a competency, and the discovery soon thereafter that cancer of the tongue had numbered his days,
his feverish work in an agony of pain to discharge his duty to those dependent upon him
by finishing this task ahead of the final call.

This and numerous other episodes draw aside the curtain of a soldier's glamor upon the Grant that was wholesomely human, unpretentious, peaceful, courageous and tenacious. He was a typical American who lived up to the opportunities that came to him as best he could and who had the stuff in him
to face disaster calmly and hopefully.

An Alameda county jury has returned a verdict of guilty in the case of a confessed slayer of a man, the second one she had shot. But, as a form of apology, this jury appeals for the mercy of the court for the defendant. Is not the law merciful enough?

Forty-six persons have perished in Texas floods. There will now be talk of measures of flood prevention for a little while.

AN ERA OF SPORT.

We are living in an era of sport. Newspapers devote columns to outdoor pastimes. Other periodicals treat games lightly or seriously, as suits their purpose—but most of the pictorial sections of the press at home and abroad present reproductions
of scenes full of interest to followers of racing,
hunting, baseball, boxing, football, tennis and other sports.

The doings of men and horses of exceptional skill
or capabilities that fill the public eye are chronicled
in detail. Their names become household words.
Who, for example, has not heard of Man o' War or Jack Dempsey among the horses, or of Babe Ruth and Jack Dempsey among the men?

When Man o' War was making records in 1920
his pictures in action and repose were flashed on the screen in every motion picture theater that sought to be up to date. Everybody felt on intimate terms with the regal chestnut whose feet had carried him faster than any other thoroughbred in the annals of the turf in this country. The desire for knowledge of Man o' War has followed him to the stud. The public wants to know about his offspring.

It is much the same with Morvich today. Crowds watch his training at a metropolitan course, and the camera follows his every movement while on the track. The people of remote hamlets know as much about him as those in the cities. It is a fine thing for racing and incidentally for horse breeding.
In California, where Morvich was born, Herbert Fleischacker, leading banker and one of those interested with Adolph Spreckels and Rudolph Spreckels, C. K. G. Billings, A. K. Macomber, D. C.
Jackling and Frank J. Kelley in promoting the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, has bought the unborn
brother or sister of Morvich from Adolph Spreckels, who owns Runnymede, the sire, and Hymir, the dam, respectively, of the present day turf sensation.

There must be a powerful sporting impulse to prompt such a course as Mr. Fleischacker has pursued. It is thoroughly characteristic of the day.
While full brothers and sisters in the horse family are not of equal merit, there are many that will hope that success will reward the western sportsman's enterprise.—New York Herald.

DAILY ALMANAC

Friday, April 28.

Vallejo is planning a new hotel.
Count Strusseneer was executed
at Copenhagen in 1772.
James Monroe, fifth president of the United States, was born in 1758.
He used to play around the neighborhood just like any other boy
without a doctrine on his mind.
Fortis Jackson and St. Philip surrendered in 1862.

For years I've been known for a timid demeanor.
Though quite undeserving a half
that's been said;
My language when roused was at least, at his clearest.
Than that of a stavedore bumped
on the head.

Now my vision is changed and I look all about me
With something of sorrow, and
more that's profane;
I take to the shadows where no one may rout me
And I curse till I rattle the door
and the pane.

Brinestone and powder and red-hot expelitive
Lend me your aid in expressing my mind;
Summon me something to
quiet a raging,
Lead me away from the curious kind!

My vision, I've said, was untrou-bled and quiet
Until my eyes swelled and my face took on red;
Serenity vanished, there came a
new riot;
I walked like a man with a sack
for a head.

Now, come the suggestions from
boxes to whiting,
From divers well-meaning and entertained folk;
A grin and they ask me 'with whom I've been fighting,
And know all the time it's the blamed poison oak.

With features askew and
with murderous itching
I look for the fellow who calls it a joke;
And the hills that I've loved
for their carpeted glories,
I see as the lair of this poisonous oak.

The Nature Club.
We know a number of bluejays
and a couple of owls who would laugh and hoot could they hear of this poison oak experience. In a way there is something funny in
the idea of a man leaving his country estate where the poison oak grows on every slope to catch the stuff on a city lot.

Poison oak never laid in wait for us in the wilds. It never leaped forth and plastered its itching presence on our features in the days we walked among it. Not unless we moved into Berkeley, where barefooted maidens are supposed to gallop over the sward, did we get bitten by the vicious plant. Out of the kindness of our heart we warn those barefooted maidens not to caper in our back yard. They would do better to select a nice asphalt pavement, a front porch
or the roof of the water company's reservoir.

There were some tall weeds in our newly acquired yard, mustard and grass hiding the roses, the poison oak, forget-me-nots, poison oak, daisies, poison oak, and pink blooming thimblefrags. We pulled up the weeds and the poison oak,
enraged by being disturbed, jumped up at us.

We don't know how it is with other folks, but are certain that we shall never be the same again.
To be bitten by the hand you have watered and weeded is a thing as unthinkable as it is impossible. We are stung by our garden pride,
blistered for pulling a weed.

What is to become of all the back-to-the-farm, plant-a-seed and hoe-a-row movements if the authorities are going to allow poison oak loose in the land? What is to become of faith in nature, human and inanimate?

Again approaches the holiday season for the man who thrives on termined that no Wild Birds shall go over there to put on a show.

Doc Cook is still asking for a something on him years ago.

There's one thing we have never heard,
As on our way we slave;
We've known some raving beauties,
But we never heard them rave.

NOTES and COMMENT

It is officially announced that there are no funds to provide for a patrol of the national forests this summer by airplanes to guard against extensive fires. There has been controversy as to just the degree of protection this patrol is,
but no doubt it helps some. Considering the attention that is paid army appropriations otherwise, the indifference as to this important matter is noticeable, indeed.

Close upon the heels of Murray's declaration that "if Mary Garden was a man he would kill her," comes the announcement that he has collapsed physically because of his professional "run in" with the diva manager. Perhaps he had read that news item about Mary being present at a prize fight and jumping on a chair to cheer when one pug knocked out another. The act seemed to evince qualities that make her no mean antagonist.

While officiating as Vice-President of the United States, the Honorable Thomas Marshall was somewhat given to turning the quip.
But since retiring to private life
he seems more inclined to be serious. He declares that "no man becomes an American until he is able to speak the American language, for one thing; and that demonstration in religion and its tendency to stray into politics is an incumbrance to us on our way to peace. Neither of these observations can be listed in the joke column.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

SACRIFICE.

One gave a purse of minted gold
and passed along his way,
But what was precious to himself;
He kept for ease and play;
He danced with women fair at night and sang his merry songs.
Content that with his yellow gold
he'd righted many wrongs.

And one there was who met the poor and bought them meat
and bread,
And quite forgot their bitter days
when once their mouths
were fed;
He gave from out his well-filled purse the stuff that could be bought,
But what they really hungered for
was more than passing thought.

A third there was who gave his pence but did not pass along,
He could not turn away from care
to join with dance or song;
He knew the misery of the world
he felt it day and night,
He never merely soothed a wrong
but tried to set it right.

There was in others' poverty a pain
which he could feel,
The tears in little children's eyes
were bitter tears and real;
He knew tomorrow must return
with many an ache and sigh
And could not toss a coin to wani
and blithely travel by.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

After seven years of service,
Colonel George Babcock today
handed in his resignation as court
commissioner for Alameda county.

Rev. E. R. Dille of the First Methodist church addressed the Sons of St. George last night on the subject, "The Mission of the Anglo-Saxon."

Rebekah Lodges of Oakland and other Eastbay cities yesterday tendered a reception to District Deputy President Kate Talbott.

W. G. Lennett has been chosen as physical director of the Oakland Y. M. C. A.

A "TIP" TO DIOGENES.

Yesterday a man entered the office of City Clerk Martin, of Mason, Mo., and said he wanted to settle a little water bill. He gave his name and the clerk looked through his books.

"Your name isn't on the record,"
the clerk said. "When did you use
this water?"

"Fifteen years ago," replied the caller. "I got 10 tanks full from a plug and way to pay 25 cents a tank."

"Well," returned the clerk, "I don't know anything about it. Did you ever get a bill?"

"No sir."
"And you say it was 15 years ago? How did you happen to keep it in your mind all that time?"

"I couldn't forget it, and something kept telling me to come around and pay that bill. It got so I couldn't stand it."

"Well, well," smiled the clerk,
"I wish that something would keep telling a few of those fellows who owe big accounts, and stir up their conscience."

The man handed over the money to settle for the water, and paid a vehicle tax on a buggy nobody had ever listed.
"I can sleep better now," he said,
as he passed out.

DO YOUR HEALTH

Why There's No Need Now
to Fear to Visit a Dentist

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health,
New York City.

How the poor kiddies used to suffer with the toothache! I can recall all the agony of such pain in my own childhood. It must have been a pathetic sight to look upon my nerve-racked self-stretcher on the sidewalk, absorbing the heat of the sun-scorched boards, trying to burn out the tortures of my pain-filled cheek.

Dentistry was a crude in those days. Country children had little chance to endure pain or to have the "tooth yanked."

I suppose I may safely rail at the village dentist of my time, because he died of old age long ago.
Today, if a dentist used those methods he would be tried for malpractice. It makes me shudder to think of those strong, well-made teeth pulled out because there happened to be in each of them a tiny spot of decay, exposing just enough of the sensitive dentine
to set up a terrible ache.

Unfortunately for our comfort,
the pain of toothache is out of all proportion to the cause. What is really an insignificant and easily-remedied defect may cause hours
of awful suffering.

What acts like real toothache
may be pain due to excessive acidity of the secretions of the mouth.
Acting on inflamed and raw gums,
on an inflamed and raw spot somewhere about the neck of a tooth,
there may be burning and irritation quite like genuine toothache.

The important thing to impress on children is that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Care of the teeth—daily care of the teeth—will insure permanency in their ownership and increased certainty of health.

The large cities have "toothbrush drills" in the public schools,
and teach the importance of dental care. In some of the smaller places not so much attention is given this subject. This is a pity, because good teeth are essential to good health and long life.

In the first place, you cannot chew your food as you should if you have sore and aching teeth.
The beginning of good digestion is proper mastication of the food.

In the next place, diseased teeth
are responsible for many serious ailments—rheumatism, heart disease and other troubles come from bad teeth. Almost 10 per cent of the rejections in the army examinations during the war were traced to bad teeth.

Bear in mind that toothache is not a sure sign of needing to have a tooth extracted. Not by any means! As I said, you may have a dreadful toothache for a very slight cause.

Then don't dread the dental chair. If you go early enough and often enough all your dentistry will be painless. It is painful because by long neglect the trouble has extended. Even then the necessary work may be done with little real discomfort.

Dentists have learned a hundred ways to make their work easy and painless. They haven't learned how to have us visit them without fear in our hearts. We never will reach that point until there is a dental chair in every schoolroom.

When the children are familiarized with dental procedure from their first days in school there will be no more dread of our friend,
the dentist.

OAKLAND HARBOR FLEET MASSED FOR CHANNEL WORK

With the arrival of the flagship today, the entire fleet of the City of Oakland is now mobilized off the Alameda wharf, a stately aggregation of pile drivers, barges, pontoons, piers, scows and other craft massed to dredge and clean out the old channel leading into the estuary.

The flag-ship, the Oakland No. 1, the big municipal dredger, went to sea from the Hanlon yard early in the morning, skippered by Tom Aitken, admiral of the municipal fleet. The only craft not represented at the gathering is Dredge No. 2, the small but noisy one digging out Lake Merritt.

The big dredge, Oakland No. 1, has been thoroughly overhauled and rebuilt at a cost of nearly $60,000, and was tested by dredging in front of the Hanlon yard. The tests were successful.

The dredge, as overhauled, boasts a new type of pump which can be reined quickly, without loss of time. The old pump had to be taken apart every few weeks when sand had cut out its linings.

CHILDREN TO HAVE OUTING IN SIERRA

Tribune Inaugurates Fund to Provide Big Vacation for Those Who Otherwise Could Not Make the Trip

According to health authorities, there are hundreds of under-nourished children in Alameda county who are in need of a vacation in the mountains this summer. To children such a trip would mean more than most persons could imagine, because it will help to build up frail bodies and give them a new start on the road to health.

Whether or not all of these youngsters will be given this chance depends upon the generosity of Oakland's kind-hearted people.

The city's recreation department and The TRIBUNE is making such a trip possible by starting The TRIBUNE'S Mountain Camp Fund, for the sole purpose of providing two weeks of enjoyment and recreation for children who otherwise could not go.

The TRIBUNE started the fund with $156.50, a sum sufficient to maintain ten children at the Oakland recreation camp in the High Sierras for two weeks. It will cost $15.65 to pay the transportation and keep a child of between 5 and 12 years at the camp for two weeks, and $25.25 for children over 12.

All contributors to this fund for a mountain vacation for needy children should send their subscriptions either to The TRIBUNE'S Mountain Camp Fund or to J. B. Nash, superintendent of the Oakland Recreation Department, City Hall. Any amount will be gratefully accepted and acknowledged by The TRIBUNE.

The Oakland recreation camp is located in the Stanislaus national forest on the middle fork of the Tuolumne river. It is equipped for enjoyment and comfort, and there are many features of entertainment, including fishing, swimming, hiking, games, etc.

The sending of the needy children to the camp will in no way limit the facilities for adults and children who can afford the vacation. The camp opens on May 20, but the first children's camp will not be in readiness until June 17, the day after public schools close for the summer vacation.

Y. W. C. A. Aid Call to Be Sounded From Pulpits of All City's Churches Sunday

Oakland churches will send forth the message of the Young Women's Christian Association on Sunday, according to plans developed today by the committee in charge of the drive for $60,000, which opens next Tuesday.

In all the pulpits of the city on Sunday morning there will be three-minute talks telling of the work of the association and urging the public to give it their support. The speakers' schedule has been arranged by David Oliphant, chairman of the speakers' committee, who will announce the names tomorrow.

Meetings were held yesterday and today at the west Oakland center of the association and at the main building in Webster street to develop further plans and appoint more workers and captains, and it was announced that the drive organization will be complete by tomorrow night.

All workers are summoned to the organization dinner at the new building on Monday night, and arrangements have been made for 400 persons. This will be followed by the luncheon on Tuesday at the same place, to be attended by the same men and women, by which the drive will be officially launched. Solicitation of funds will begin following the Tuesday luncheon. The organization's activities may not be curtailed. Seventy per cent of the expenses of the institution is badly needed to fill out the year-end operating budget for revenue bearing departments, he said, and that the public should aid.

A young Italian came as a candidate for naturalization before a judge sitting at White Plains, New York. Although he had been in the country barely long enough for the issuance of his first papers, the applicant showed a remarkable knowledge, everything considered, of the laws of this country and of the duties appertaining to citizenship.

He knew that the Capitol was located at Washington, that there was a difference between federal government and state government, that a voter was presumed never to sell his ballot, and that an oath was held to be sacred in court. The judge conducting the examination was moved to put one more question:

"See here, Tony," he said, "you understand, don't you, that even though you become a citizen there is still, politically speaking, a difference between you and a native-born citizen of this country?"

For the first time since the inquiry had begun Tony seemed stumped. Puzzled he shook his head.

"Meester Judge," he said, "I don't getta you."

"Well, then, I'll put it another way," said His Honor. "Could you an Italian born, be the President of the United States?"

Tony's face brightened. "If you please, meester Judge, no! I gotta good job now, working for Mr. Duffy, the contract."

McEvoy's Comic Strip

Merely McEvoy.

This earnest seeker after knowledge wishes to know who chooses the names and pictures that appear on our cigar boxes? And why they are so chosen? Why, for instance, do they name a cigar Henry VIII? So far as I have been able to learn after a careful reading of Wells' Outline and Fox's Book of Martyrs, Henry never cared for any cigars and knew little, if anything, about brands made in Havana. And why pick on Dante for a name? Because it tastes like his best seller? He certainly doesn't look like a contented cigar smoker. That gloomy face would make a better argument for the anti's. And why Van Dyck? And Rembrandt? Why not Michel Angelo?

Even more baffling are the great unknowns. La Palina, who is she? Cyrilla, what did she ever do? Cornona—never heard of her. Could it be possible she was a cigar fiend? And was that her maiden name?

Undoubtedly now that the ladies are taking up the wicked weed we will soon have an epidemic of female names and faces on our cigar boxes. The faces, at least, would be an improvement. Certainly the birds who have been picked to decorate the present-day containers were not chosen for their looks.

Yes, it will be only a short time until we have cigars and cigarettes named after our leading actresses and other prominent women. The Ina Claire Perfectos, the Ann Penningtons, Club Shape, the Bon Ton Cigar, Poiret Wrapper, and, in years to come, when the tumult and the shouting have died and time has covered with its mantle of charity the disturbances of today, cigarette manufacturers will be naming their best brands the Lucy Page Gaston, and will get up containers showing the lady lithographed in four colors and gold on the covers, smoking one of them with evident rapture. At that she will be a decided improvement over Henry VIII.

Dance Hall Rioters Are Found Guilty
SAN RAFAEL, April 28.—William Doyle and Joseph Carroll, both of San Francisco, are awaiting sentence here by Justice of the Peace E. de la Montanya before whom they were found guilty yesterday of assisting to break up the Kentfield dance on the night of April 15. Thirteen other alleged gangsters who appeared to answer similar charges were dismissed, owing to the fact that positive identification of the men was impossible. More than 50 club women of Kentfield and Ross appeared at the trial of Doyle and Carroll. The men were arrested as a result of a storm of protests and demands for action following the dance riot Saturday night.

MODESTO, April 28.—Lovers of strange birds are interested in a pair brought here from Ecuador by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chadek. They have long, sharp bills and are about the size of a robin. They are extremely active and playful. The male and female look much alike, but sing with a different note. They will not eat seeds but thrive on raw meat, bugs, bread and milk and crackers.

MERCED WRECK VICTIM TO FACE BOOZE CHARGE

MERCED, April 28.—Claude Edwards is in the county hospital suffering from injuries received in an auto wreck, and as soon as he is able to appear in court will have to answer a charge of transporting liquor. His car was wrecked on the State highway. J. V. McGuirk and J. Brennan, who helped rescue Edwards and put him aboard a machine which brought him here, then rescued a gallon jug of liquor from the wrecked by the roadside where they had concealed it. They later staged an uproarious party in a local rooming house, were arrested and given a 60-day suspended jail sentence by Judge Bone on condition that they leave town in 30 minutes. They left.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Detailed investigations were under way in San Francisco and Fresno today regarding charges of graft in the enforcement of prohibition laws, by police and federal officers. As a result, a San Francisco police lieutenant is being questioned, and grand jury indictments were returned against five men, three of whom are government officials in the valley city. Evidence against Police Lieutenant William T. Healy of the southern district of San Francisco, in connection with the bootleg scandal there is said not to be serious enough in its nature to merit federal action, and will be placed in the hands of Police Chief O'Brien and the commission, it developed. Today the federal grand jury in San Francisco met in special session to consider all of the mass of evidence unearthed in the present investigation. A number of indictments, possibly as many as fourteen, may be returned, it was reported. Mention

Good morning!

Good morning!—wings of the morning! A good cup of coffee first thing in the morning says it—and does it.

It helps start the day sunny side up. The delightful smooth rich taste and the gentle invigoration, that you get from a real good cup of coffee, bring you an abundance of cheer and good feeling.

That's the way to begin every day of your life.

Common coffee doesn't do it—it is just something warm to drink.

So why not have every morning of the year a good morning? Why not always have fine coffee for breakfast? It costs just about the same per cup as common coffee.

Your money back, at your grocer's, if you don't like Schilling Coffee.

SUCCESS MEETS FUND CAMPAIGN

SAN JOSE, April 28.—With $41,000 reported raised up to noon yesterday and with nine days to go in which to obtain the remainder of the $150,000 quota for Santa Clara county exclusive of San Jose and Santa Clara, campaign workers in the drive for funds to rebuild the University of Santa Clara were at work today, optimistic to a high degree over the outlook.

The $41,000 reported, it was said, did not represent a complete figure of the amount subscribed, a number of the committee leaders having been unable to get in from the outside districts to make their reports. The campaigners are conducting a house to house canvass throughout the valley districts.

The forces were augmented today with the addition of a large number of San Jose business and professional men who enlisted as campaigners in the drive.

MAN, 107 YEARS OLD, WALKS FROM MILPITAS TO S. J.

SAN JOSE, April 28.—Leonardo Navero, 107 years old, yesterday conducted a successful pilgrimage from the Santa Clara county almshouse at Milpitas to the office of Sheriff George W. Lyle.

The feeble centenarian, who continually runs away from the almshouse, managed to make his way to this city along the highway, receiving only one brief lift by an automobile.

Reaching the sheriff's office, Navero proceeded to tell a sorrowful tale of the manner in which attendants at the almshouse are trying to harm him. Rather than return him immediately to the almshouse, Sheriff Lyle took the venerable old man to a nearby restaurant, put a man's size meal under Navero's belt, gave him a pipe and tobacco and otherwise made the 107-year-old runaway comfortable. Late last evening, the man was returned to the home.

If you saw it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

DIXON TO HAVE MAY DAY FETE

DIXON, April 28.—A feature of the 47th annual May Day Picnic, which will be held here tomorrow is a splendid exhibit of pure-bred livestock by local breeders. The list of exhibitors includes the names of some of the most prominent breeders of the State: Howard Vaughn, William Briggs & Son, T. S. Glide, J. D. Rowe & Sons, C. S. Phillips, H. M. Berglund, George Jeffrey, Carl Hess, Boyd Harold, Tony Dutra, J. R. Bloom, A. S. Almeida and Daily Bros.

Cattle, sheep and hogs will form a section of the parade in the morning and will be on exhibition at the park during the day. The stock show is to be educational in character, with a view to showing local people and visitors the excellence of the stock of this locality and also to illustrate breed types. The start made this year, it is hoped, will create interest in future shows of this nature. Over 200 characters will participate in the spectacular pageant depicting California history which will be one of the stellar attractions of Dixon's May Day celebration. The pageant will be staged in front of the grandstand at the local park at 4 p. m.

POLICE RAID GAMBLERS. MODESTO, April 28.—When police used a sledge hammer on the door of a building at 114 Ninth street they broke their way into one of the most important gambling establishments yet uncovered in Modesto. Three men, C. F. Felt, J. J. Cassel and Joe Farnell, were arrested. They said they had recently come here from Stockton. The officers found $10 in coin on the tables, with five sets of dice, two revolvers and about twenty decks of cards in addition to a first-class table for shooting craps.

CHECK PASSER HUNTED. SANTA CRUZ, April 28.—Bogus check passers have been at work in the city, and are supposed to be the ones who were arrested at Salinas. One approached the clerk in the office of the Central Fuel and Lumber company just before closing, alleging his automobile was up the street in a garage, and ordered several bundles of lumber which he ordered to be left on the walk so he could pick them up when he came along with his auto. He gave the clerk a check for $15 and received $9.50 in change.

IRRIGATION IS PLANNED. STEVENSON, April 28.—At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Cora Schurtz, plans were taken to organize an irrigation and drainage district. The matter was thoroughly discussed from every angle, the legal side being explained by Attorney A. J. Cowell. He was eventually requested to formulate a petition, which will be circulated for signatures and presented to the county supervisors, asking that an irrigation and drainage district be organized here.

RECEPTION FOR NEW MEMBERS, PLAN OF CHURCH

RICHMOND, April 28.—The First Presbyterian church holds its annual reception to new members in the church parlors tonight. The Ladies' Aid Society will be in charge of all arrangements.

A social hour will follow a program of musical and literary features. Sixty new members are expected to be present.

El Cerrito Planning Many Improvements

RICHMOND, April 28.—A petition is to be circulated shortly in El Cerrito for the purpose of sounding out the residents on the proposed $4 bond for a new city hall, a new fire station and an auditorium.

City Treasurer Frank Kalsh is the prime mover in the proposal and will have charge of circulating the petition. The taxable wealth of the city is $1,126,000, with a population of 2400.

CAPITAL'S BEARD BRIGADE COMING HERE TOMORROW

Sacramento Whiskerinos to Visit Eastbay Cities to Boost Carnival.

The Whiskerinos are coming! The much talked of, much advertised tribe of hairy-faced Sacramento business men who have vowed not to put away their faces until after the "Days of '49" carnival and pageant of the Sacramento Rotary club, calculated to renew the old and make new history for the state, will be here tomorrow. They will come accompanied by the "Girls of '49," an auxiliary organization, also intended to advertise the greatest of all pageants of the days of old.

Whiskerinos and "Girls of '49" will arrive on a special train over the Sacramento Short Line at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will be met at the Fordeth street and Shafter avenue depot of the San Francisco and Sacramento road by a whole flock of special cars, furnished by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, and in the city they will be met by the Whiskerinos, which now having been unshaven for many days are acquiring a hirsute adornment that likens them to the old argonauts they represent.

After the tri-city tour a banquet will be served and the entire aggregation will then attend the Shiner's Stairl Grax at the Auditorium, where they will again put on some special stunts.

PARACHUTE RACE SET FOR SUNDAY

Oaklanders fond of thrills will have an opportunity to enjoy a few next Sunday afternoon when four parachute jumpers will leap from a plane simultaneously 3000 feet in the air and race to earth. It is to be a parachute race in which the racers will endeavor to bring their parachutes to earth in the shortest time possible.

The affair was announced today by Chet Clark, Oakland aviator and conductor of Durant Airport, who returned in his plane from Los Angeles yesterday. With him, in four other planes, came the Abbott & Miller parachute racing team.

The men who will participate in the race, four parachute jumpers and four pilots, are all former army aviators with overseas service records. Such a race has been attempted but once before, and that was in Los Angeles two weeks ago.

"Buller" Miller, one of the parachute jumpers and who won the recent race in Los Angeles, jumped from the plane with one parachute, and he about 1000 feet from the earth he cut loose from that parachute and drops 500 feet, opening a second parachute which he carries on his back. In this manner he gains 500 feet on the other jumpers and wins. The head of Lake Merritt will be the scene of the race, which will take place at 2 o'clock.

Travelers to Hold Their Dance Tonight

Wives of the United Commercial Travelers will hold a dance at Maple hall, Fourteenth and Webster streets, tonight to help toward the fund being raised for the orphanage of G. Edwin Schmidt, in charge of the entertainment committee, assisted by Mesdames George Brown, Charles Wright, E. Danielson, G. Edwin Schmidt, Fred Berhardt, W. J. Lane and the Misses Catherine and Irene Berhardt.

SALVATION SALE TOMORROW. There will be an auction sale of handwork of the sewing society of the Salvation Army Corps No. 2 at the Salvation Army hall, 1305 Harrison street, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Brigadier C. Christensen, Scandinavian Territorial commander of the western division of the organization, will be at the hall tomorrow and Sunday.

Whiskers Made Compulsory By Sacramento Law

SACRAMENTO, April 28.—Sacramento council last night passed a whiskers ordinance as an emergency measure, making it compulsory for all male citizens to grow whiskers until the Days of '49 celebration is concluded May 28 and providing a kangaroo court named by the woman member of the council, the court to try all cases of men who shave their faces between today and the closing day of the celebration.

The ordinance was drafted by Clyde L. Seavey, city manager and chief of the Whiskerinos club, which now includes more than 1000 members, more than 500 of whom stormed the council chambers last night to demand that the ordinance be passed, the council having refused to consider the measure a week ago.

WHY NOT LADIES? SAIZBURY.—A tax on monocles has been fixed by the city government.

Bandits Frightened By Call for Aid

Three bandits who attempted to hold up John Patu, proprietor of the Reedy Hotel at 622 Franklin street, were frightened away when Paula called for help.

Shortly after midnight the men rang the night bell. When Patu opened his door the men covered him with their revolvers. He was told to turn over his cash to them but instead of doing as told he called for help. The men became frightened and ran away.

He notified the police, and inspectors Joe Enright and Louis Kersch responded to the call. They searched the neighborhood but could find no trace of the men.

Physicians Face $100,000 Action

Dr. Edward von Adelung and Dr. W. A. Clark, with offices in the Oakland Bank of Savings building, have been made co-defendants in a suit for $100,000 damages for malpractice alleged by Gustave and Martha Frenkel as legal guardians of Gunther Frenkel. The complaint filed with County Clerk George Gross, charges von Adelung and Clark with carelessly and negligently diagnosing Gunther Frenkel's illness.

LONG LINES GIVE LOOK OF DISTINCTION

"Really, Esther, I hardly knew your sister in that lovely new navy tricot suit she was wearing yesterday. She has been bewitching the fact that she is getting a bit stout, and I declare I thought she looked well slender."

"Well, mother and I both have pleaded with her to wear long lines instead of short jackets and plaid skirts. They only add to her width and she really isn't bad if she dresses right."

"Isn't that did you say? I should say she isn't. She's positively stunning. She looks really dignified with that dashing dark hat and that lovely blouse and that wonderful suit."

"Oh, that suit is a beautiful thing. I'll admit. It has one of those new long coats with beautiful sides and is of the best material, and is evidently made by skilled tailors. She got it at an exceptionally low price, too. I think she went to 515 12th street and got it at Cherry's. And the best part of it is that she got the suit, hat and blouse on credit. They allow one to make practically any arrangement for credit payments, and the later monthly payments that are satisfactory to the buyer."

Cherry's store for men is at 525 12th street.—Advertisement.

No-Egg Mayonnaise Dressing

I have found this method of making mayonnaise both convenient and economical: 1/2 tsp. salt, 2 tsp. Carnation Milk, 1/2 cup oil, 1/2 tsp. paprika, 1/2 tsp. lemon juice or vinegar. Put salt and paprika in a bowl; add Carnation Milk and mix thoroughly; add oil slowly, stirring constantly. Then add the lemon juice or vinegar. This recipe makes 1/2 cup salad dressing.

REPRIMAND FOR CHEATERS UPHELD
BY CO-ED LEADERMiss Pressler Declares That Public Denunciation Was Necessary to Cure Evil.

BERKELEY, April 28.—Answering an attack leveled at her by C. C. Wakefield, editor of the Daily Californian, for publicly reprimanding two women students in a history class, Miss Olive Pressler, chairman of the women's student affairs committee, today declared that such a lesson was needed by the entire campus to reawaken them to the honor code of college life.

"I have no apology to make for my action," declared Miss Pressler. "One of the women was a graduate student and the other a senior. If, after four years or more of college life, they refuse to recognize the honor spirit, then it is time something is done. Neither of the girls was convicted by the women's committee because they refused to confess their cheating despite the fact that their actions were flagrant enough to annoy students in their class. The committee has convicted persons in the past where confessions were not forthcoming, but have felt of late that the student involved must confess to make a conviction binding."

Miss Pressler denied charges made in college circles that her action in shaming out the two girls for punishment before 250 of their classmates was a "slop" at student self-government, and declared that President Barrows in no way dictated what should be done, merely sanctioning a plan first advanced by her.

Defending her stand at the last university meeting of the term held this morning in the Greek theater, Miss Pressler told the assembled students that they were "mere children in governmental experience." Cooperation and advice from President Barrows and other university heads, she declared, is needed on the campus.

Hero-Ship of Manila Bay
Is to Be Scrapped Here

A direct descendant of the original Monitor that battled the Merrimack at Hampton Roads and smashed the hopes of the Confederacy for naval supremacy, the old double-turreted Monitor, one of Dewey's "hero ships" of Manila Bay, is en route to this port, where she will be turned into a pile of junk.

The Monitor, which was copied after the first iron-clad of the American navy, has been sold to A. Berzovich of Oakland for $3600 and will be broken up for scrap iron, following in the path of the famous cruiser Brooklyn, which is today experiencing the same fate.

Word was received here today that the Monitor had left the Hawaiian Islands, where she has been stationed at Pearl Bay for several years. She is being towed here by the W. F. Herrin, a tanker, which left Honolulu yesterday for this port.

The historic vessel was built at the Union Iron Works in San Francisco in 1893 and was the first steel warship constructed on the Pacific Coast. For years she served as a show ship, sailing up and down the coast. Then came the Spanish-American war and the vessel was ordered to Manila where she did splendid work with Dewey's fleet. She will be torn to pieces and cut up at the foot of Jackson street.

Fire Sweeps Offices
In S. F. Building

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Damage to the amount of $3000 was sustained and one fireman injured in a mysterious blaze that destroyed the talloring establishment of C. J. Peterson, 806 Chronicle building, and also partially wrecked the offices of Dr. D. Bradley, Plymouth opposite. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it was burning fiercely when the alarm was sounded early this morning. The high pressure system was utilized, and a stream struck William Viereck, of 2567 Bryant street, a fireman, who was knocked down, suffering bruises of the shoulders and arms. He was treated at the Central Emergency hospital.

Police Fire When Man, 66, Won't Halt

Three shots were fired at Sebastian Touli, 66, when he refused to stop when commanded to do so by Policeman L. Carroll. The officer found him prowling around a new building which is being built by E. M. Marks on Rosedale avenue near Santa Rita avenue.

When Touli saw the officer he started to run. The policeman called for him to halt but he jumped over several fences and went into his home, where he was taken into custody by Sergeant E. O. Steinbach, C. B. Jennings and Carroll. He is being held in the city prison, though no charge has been placed against him.

Harshbarger to Be Buried Tomorrow

The funeral of Oswald H. Harshbarger, who died suddenly in Tulare last Saturday will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow from a private chapel at Telegraph avenue and Thirtieth street. Mrs. Harshbarger, past state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was in Washington, D. C. in attendance upon the Continental Congress when news of her husband's death reached her.

When Touli saw the officer he went into his home, where he was Harshbarger was a member of Klamath Falls Lodge No. 77, F. and A. M. of Klamath Falls, Ore.

CITY ON GUARD
FOR GRASS FIRES

City Engineer W. W. Harmon today began an intensive campaign to render the city safe for residents. Action toward the removal of dry grass had been asked of the citizens, but very little was done. Now Harmon says that unless the residents burn off the grass of their vacant lots it will be done by the street and fire departments, and the cost will be assessed as a lien on the property.

"Folks never get excited till the town starts to burn down," says Harmon. "The street department has been trying to stimulate public interest in the matter of clearing rubbish and dry grass, because Oakland is essentially a residence city with plenty of outdoor room, and such a situation always invites catastrophe."

"Records of the fire department for last summer show that in one day there were 52 fire alarms, most of them because of grass and brush fires. We ask the co-operation of all the residents."

DAYLIGHT ROBBER
LOOTS NEW HOME

Fresh efforts are being made by the police today to apprehend the "afternoon burglar" who yesterday brought the total number of his daylight robberies to fifteen by entering the home of H. J. Ghirardelli, 6433 Chabot road. Jewelry valued at about $1000 was taken. The house was entered through a rear door while the members of the family were absent.

The "afternoon burglar" has been given his nickname by the police departments of San Francisco, Berkeley, Piedmont, Richmond and Oakland because he operates during the same hours all cases.

RECOGNITION OF MEXICO URGED
BY LEGION MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Recognition of the Republic of Mexico by the United States government has been asked by San Francisco Post No. 1 of the American Legion. At a recent meeting of the post a resolution strongly urging recognition of America's neighbor to the south was adopted.

The resolution was fostered by Commander H. C. Mathewson and Vice-Commander A. D. McLean.

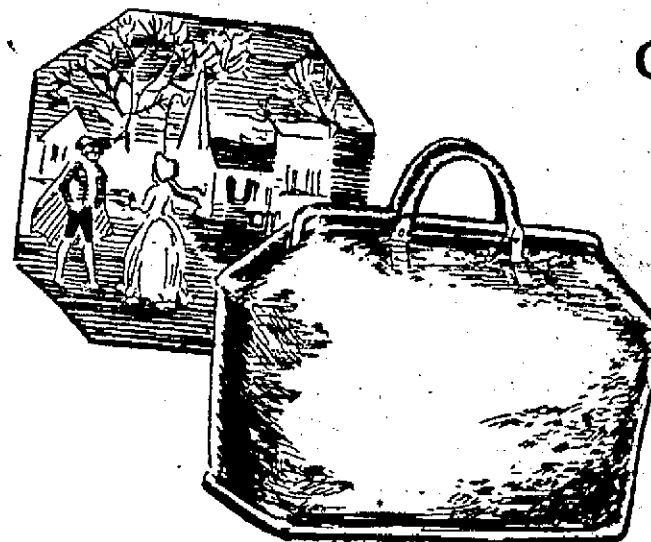

Pantry Boy Guilty
Of London Murder

LONDON, April 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Henry Jacob, a 19-year-old hotel pantry boy, was found guilty today by the central criminal court for the murder of Lady Alice White, widow of Sir Edward White, former chairman of the London county council, on March 14. He was sentenced to death.
